

Event Opportunities

Employee Benefit Plan Conference

Friday, April 30, 2010

Cool Springs Marriott, Franklin, Tenn.

CPAs involved in audits of employee benefit plans can't afford to miss this important new conference. Attendees will get first-hand news and information on issues vital to auditors of employee benefit plans from national and local industry experts, including Ian Dingwall, chief accountant of the Department of Labor.

Spring Industry Conference

Monday, May 17, 2010

TSCPA Meeting Center, Brentwood, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 100)

This popular conference attracts CPAs from mid- to upper-level management in industry. Covering a variety of current topics, the conference is certain to address the trends and issues affecting CPAs in industry today.

Young CPA Conference

Thursday-Friday, May 20-21, 2010

Hilton Downtown, Nashville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 120)

This conference is designed specifically for young CPAs. The conference provides core level knowledge that will help CPAs deal effectively with developing strong careers.

Memphis Business & Industry Conference

Monday, May 24, 2010

University of Memphis FedEx Institute of Technology, Memphis, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 50)

This conference is designed specifically for corporate CPAs. The conference provides core level knowledge that will help CPAs deal more effectively with critical, technical and professional problems facing industry in today's business climate.

Governmental Accounting & Auditing Conference

Thursday-Friday, June 3-4, 2010

Willis Conference Center, Nashville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 180)

The conference attracts CPAs who perform audits or provide management services for governmental entities, government managers and non-profit accountants and auditors.

Tennessee Accounting and Business Expo

Monday-Tuesday, Aug. 30-31, 2010

Cool Springs Marriott, Franklin, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 300)

The Tennessee Accounting and Business Expo is the largest TSCPA event featuring 16 hours of CPE. The Expo is a statewide, two-day, 40-session event which includes the hottest trends in taxation, management, accounting issues, technology and more.

See page 9 for registration information

Financial Institutions Conference

Monday, Sept. 20, 2010

Willis Conference Center, Nashville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 160)

This popular conference exposes new trends in banking and provides technical updates to CPAs in mid- to upper-level management in banking.

Chattanooga Cluster

Wednesday-Friday, Sept. 22-24, 2010

The Chattanooga Hotel & Conference Center, Chattanooga, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 100 per day)

The Chattanooga Cluster offers high-quality four-hour accounting and auditing seminars. Attendees will earn up to 24 hours of CPE credit in three short days.

Construction Conference

Monday, Sept. 27, 2010

TSCPA Meeting Center, Brentwood, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 80)

This conference offers highly-rated sessions providing updates and valuable information on topics relevant to the needs of CPAs who work in the construction industry.

Smoky Mountain Cluster

Monday-Friday, Oct. 18-22, 2010

Music Road Hotel & Convention Center, Pigeon Forge, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 90-130 per day)

Have some fun in the Smoky Mountains this fall! Join us at the Music Road Hotel & Convention Center for a week of education and relaxation. Earn up to 40 hours of CPE credit while taking in the sites and scenery of the Smoky Mountains. This year's cluster features 20 seminars covering the latest in accounting and auditing, taxation, management and technology.

TSCPA Conference on Business Valuation Forensic Investigation & Litigation Services

Thursday-Friday, Oct. 21-22, 2010

TSCPA Meeting Center, Brentwood, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 70)

This conference is designed to give CPAs interested in these specialty areas insightful, leading-edge training from some of the top practitioners in the industry.

Trucking Conference

Monday, Oct. 25, 2010

TSCPA Meeting Center, Brentwood, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 50)

This conference is designed for CPAs who offer services to the trucking industry. The conference provides key information to help CPAs deal effectively with this specialized industry.

Event Opportunities

Personal Financial Planning Conference

Friday, Oct. 29, 2010

TSCPA Meeting Center, Brentwood, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 50)

This conference is designed for CPAs involved in personal financial planning for clients. The program features speakers known both locally and nationally for their expertise.

State Tax Conference

Friday, Nov. 5, 2010

TSCPA Meeting Center, Brentwood, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 50)

This conference updates Tennessee CPAs and attorneys on state tax law changes and issues affecting their professional practices. The program includes tax experts who provide participants with an update and analysis of development and tax saving ideas.

Tennessee Accounting & Auditing Symposium

Monday-Tuesday, Nov. 8-9, 2010

Willis Conference Center, Nashville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 150)

Accountants in public practice, industry and government attend this top-rated symposium. With many sessions to choose from, both the traditional and non-traditional CPA will benefit.

Tunica Cluster

Thursday-Friday, Nov. 11-12, 2010

Harrah's Casino & Hotel, Tunica, Miss.

(Expected attendance: 60-80 per day)

The Tunica Cluster is the perfect setting to combine accounting & auditing and taxation seminars with fun extracurricular activities at the Harrah's Casino & Hotel in Tunica, Miss. Harrah's offers 24-hour gaming, live shows, great restaurants and a variety of shopping opportunities.

Tennessee Federal Tax Conference

* co-sponsored by the Educational & Memorial Foundation of the TSCPA and the Tennessee Federal Tax Institute

Wednesday-Friday, Nov 17-19, 2010

Cool Springs Marriott, Franklin, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 250)

This conference updates Tennessee CPAs and attorneys on federal tax law changes and issues affecting their professional practices. The three-day program brings together national and local tax experts who provide participants with an update and analysis of developments and tax saving ideas.

Healthcare Conference

Monday-Tuesday, Nov. 29-30, 2010

Cool Springs Marriott, Franklin, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 325)

This two-day conference is the must-attend event for financial professionals who work for or with physicians, hospitals and long-term care facilities.

Walter Nunnallee Federal Tax Update

Monday, Nov. 29, 2010

Location TBA, Memphis, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 190)

Tuesday, Nov. 30, 2010

Chattanooga Convention Center, Chattanooga, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 170)

Wednesday, Dec. 1, 2010

Location TBA, Knoxville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 200)

Thursday, Dec. 2, 2010

Location TBA, Nashville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 300)

Technology Conference

Thursday-Friday, Dec. 2-3, 2010

Willis Conference Center, Nashville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 170)

CPAs with an interest in technological developments in both hardware and software attend this conference. Packed with information that business leaders need to stay abreast of the newest technologies and their implications for business, this two-day conference always proves a winner!

Account-Fest Nashville

Thursday-Friday, Dec. 16-17, 2010

Nashville Convention Center, Nashville, Tenn.

(Expected attendance: 250)

Account-Fest keeps CPAs up-to-date on the latest developments in today's quickly-changing business environment. Attendees choose from highly-rated four-hour seminars on some of the hottest happenings in the areas of accounting and auditing, taxation and management.