

2009 Public Service Award

Each year, the Tennessee Society of CPAs (TSCPA) recognizes a member who has distinguished himself or herself in public service activities. The society is seeking nominations for those individuals known to be actively involved in their community, whether in humanitarian, civic, government, church or professional activities. Nominations are requested to the TSCPA office by Feb. 1, 2009.

Criteria:

Nominees for the TSCPA 2009 Public Service Award must be TSCPA members. Self-nominations are encouraged. Candidates will be judged on the following criteria:

- participation in community, charitable or other civic activities on an ongoing basis, including service in a leadership capacity;
- taking responsibility for a public service project which has had a significant positive impact on the community;
- serving in a notable volunteer capacity in local, state or national government;
- encouraging participation in and/or implementation of community projects in published materials; and/or
- serving in an outstanding manner as an appointed or elected official at the local, state or national level.
